Martha’s Vineyard Financial Group welcomes Luke Murphy to lead Martha’s Vineyard Financial Group and Martha’s Vineyard Investment Advisors

Luke Murphy has accepted a senior management role as Managing Director, Investment Services with Martha’s Vineyard Financial Group (MVFG). Murphy has extensive experience in wealth management and close connections to the Island and the Cape. For the thirteen years prior to joining Martha’s Vineyard Financial Group, he was Director of Marketing, Business Development and Client Relations at a Boston-based Registered Investment Advisory (RIA) specializing in institutional and family-based wealth. Murphy attended Barnstable High School and maintains a home on the Cape. His extended family owns several businesses and actively serves the Yarmouth and Falmouth communities.

“Luke is joining our team at an important moment in the Martha’s Vineyard Financial Group’s history. In keeping with our continuous pursuit of excellence, Luke’s talent and experience will be critical in taking investment management to the next level. His skill will be instrumental in bringing the operational, investment management, business development and technological enhancements we have underway to fruition.” stated James M. Anthony, President and CEO of Martha’s Vineyard Financial Group and Martha’s Vineyard Savings Bank.

“This area is very special to me and I am honored to have the opportunity to return to the area and serve the Martha’s Vineyard and Cape Cod communities”, said Murphy. “I am looking forward to meeting our clients and engaging with the community to understand how we can most effectively serve their financial needs.”

Murphy graduated from Connecticut College and holds Series 7, 63, 65, and 55 licenses.
