Martha's Vineyard Bank's Main Street, Edgartown location to remain open during renovations

Edgartown, MA – Martha's Vineyard Bank's Main Street, Edgartown location will remain open during renovations. As of Monday, January 27th customers will be asked to use a temporary entrance on School Street. In May, we will celebrate the opening of the newly renovated and upgraded financial services experience.

“Martha's Vineyard Bank's ever-present goal is to provide creative solutions for our customers,” said James Anthony, President and CEO of Martha's Vineyard Bank. “When our Edgartown customers said ‘going to the post office location would be an inconvenience,’ we created the mini-branch in a corner of the Main Street location. When our first mini-branch space was to be sacrificed for the renovation and our customers said ‘any closure of Edgartown Main Street will be an inconvenience,’ our team revisited what we thought was impossible and are now re-purposing office space for a relocated mini-branch. Now our Edgartown Main Street mini-branch will be open for the duration of renovations!” The Bank will provide updates on social media and through news channels as further information becomes available.
