Martha's Vineyard Bank Awards $72,000 in Total Scholarship Money to Six High School Seniors

Edgartown, MA – Martha's Vineyard Bank is proud to announce the six scholarship recipients in the 2022 graduating classes at both Martha's Vineyard Regional High School and Falmouth High School.

There were four recipients on Martha's Vineyard; Ashley Brasfield, Owen DiBiaso, Delilah Hammarlund, and Benjamin Mulvey; and two recipients in Falmouth; William Gerlach and Brigid Murphy. All six students will receive $3,000 a year for all four years of college, totaling $12,000 per student and a grand total of $72,000 over four years in scholarship money.

In the past twelve years, Martha's Vineyard Bank has awarded 63 students a total of $429,000 in scholarship money. Martha's Vineyard Regional High School conducted its Class Night on June 10th and Falmouth High School conducted its Awards Night on June 2nd. There were 34 total applicants from Martha's Vineyard, including both the Martha's Vineyard Regional High School and the Martha's Vineyard Public Charter School, and 27 total applicants from Falmouth High School. All applying students were asked to include a list of school and community activities, work experience, and career goals.

"All of the applicants were very well qualified, and we appreciate everyone taking the time to apply," said Jennifer Ray, Community Engagement Director at Martha's Vineyard Bank. "We, at Martha's Vineyard Bank, are thrilled to help these six outstanding students move closer to their dreams. Congratulations to all!"
