Martha's Vineyard Bank Raises $50,000 for Ukraine in Bank Match

Edgartown, MA – Martha's Vineyard Bank announced today that Martha's Vineyard Bank and the community have successfully raised $50,000 of financial support for Ukraine's families and displaced citizens.

Martha's Vineyard Bank had pledged to match donations up to $25,000 to three organizations providing aid to Ukraine including UNICEF, World Central Kitchen and Care. With the addition of a community-based effort to support Direct Relief, over $25,000 was raised and the match was triggered.

To help further with the Support Ukraine Effort, community members can donate directly to the three identified non-profits above at local.mvbank.com/supportukraine.
