For Immediate Release

November 30, 2021

Martha's Vineyard Bank is Proud to Announce Jennifer Smith Turner Elected as a Corporator and Bank Trustee and Todd Bidwell, Jennifer Edwards, Clark Guinn, and James Hagerty as Corporators.

Edgartown, MA – Martha's Vineyard Bank hosted the Annual Meeting of the Corporators for Vineyard Bancorp, a mutual holding company on November 10, 2021 at the Martha's Vineyard Film Center in Vineyard Haven. A virtual option to participate was also provided. During the meeting, Jennifer Smith Turner was elected to the Board of Trustees of Martha's Vineyard Bank.

Ms. Turner is an acclaimed author and corporate executive. She is the author of two poetry books and a recent novel. As an author and poet, she has been a featured speaker at Yale University and University of Pennsylvania Kelly Writers House. She has also been featured on NPR and Connecticut Public Television.

A full-time resident of Martha's Vineyard, Ms. Turner's corporate career is impressive. She has served as interim President and Board Member for the Newman's Own Foundation. Prior to relocating to Martha's Vineyard, Turner led the Girl Scouts of Connecticut as President and CEO and was appointed by Connecticut's Governor to be Deputy Commissioner of the Department of Economic and Community Development. In her early career, Turner served in several executive roles in the Insurance industry.

"We are extraordinarily fortunate Ms. Turner will be sharing her experience and talent as a member of our Board of Trustees. She fully supports our purpose and mission and she will be a tremendous asset to the organization as we serve our community and build our future," stated James M. Anthony, President and CEO of Martha's Vineyard Bank.

The Bank also welcomed Mr. Todd Bidwell, General Manager of the Island Queen, Ms. Jennifer Edwards, Executive Director of the Falmouth Road Race, Clark Guinn, General Manager of Scout Hotels, and James Hagerty, Town Administrator for the Town of Edgartown.

Mr. Bidwell is well-known in the Falmouth community through his volunteer work as the Board President of ViPS (Volunteers in Public Schools) and Board President of Wings for Falmouth Families.

In addition to her role as executive director for the Falmouth Road Race, Ms. Edwards is deeply involved in supporting the community as a member of the Falmouth Chamber Board of Directors, and other area organizations.

Mr. Guinn is a long-time executive in the hospitality industry locally most recently as Vice President of Operations for Scout Hotel and Resort Management. He has also been General Manager for the Sea Crest Resort and Conference Center.

Mr. Hagerty, in addition to his public service as Edgartown's Town Administrator, is an active reservist and a Marine Corps veteran of the Iraq war.
