Martha's Vineyard Bank Announces The Art of the Great Ponds

Edgartown, MA – Martha's Vineyard Bank announced today The Art of the Great Ponds art exhibit running from Friday, August 12th – Thursday, September 1st at its Chilmark Office.

Martha's Vineyard Bank is committed to support the preservation of the Great Ponds. The Art of the Great Ponds features Island Artists from the Martha's Vineyard Hospital Permanent Collection and is curated by Monina von Opel with "Great Ponds" film excerpts and remarks by the filmmaker, Ollie Becker.

The Great Pond Foundation and the Vineyard Conservation Society play a major role in protecting the local environment. The Great Pond Foundation was formed “to enhance the health and beauty of the Edgartown Great Pond by supporting solutions to environmental problems affecting it;” and The Vineyard Conservation Society is “dedicated to preserving the environment of Martha's Vineyard through advocacy, education, and the protection of the Island's land and water.”
